Customer Reviews

The transcriptions in this book are beautiful. Particularly fond of playing Here Comes the Sun. (It's also one of the easiest songs in the book.)

Most of the reviews for this book as positive for good reason. These are fun but sufficiently challenging arrangements for the beginning to intermediate mandolin player that really capture the essence of the songs. I've thoroughly enjoyed this book.

Wonderful book for a beginner like me! My mandolin instructor was pretty impressed with it as well!

Fabulous book. Just what I was looking for. Wish they had a volume 2 with more Beatles songs. Challenging and interesting and fun.

Great book. I read notation but appreciate the tab for fingering suggestions. The selection of songs is good, too. I also use it for ukulele, although the tabs won't work for uke, of course.

Nice book
