Wendy Mewes lives in the wilds of Finistère. A love of history and landscape drives the themes of her published work, which includes Discovering the History of Brittany, Walking the Brittany Coast: Morlaix to Benodet, Crossing Brittany (a travelogue based on walking the Nantes-Brest canal) and The Five of Cups, a novel set in the Monts d'Arrée. She runs the Brittany Walks website and works extensively promoting the understanding of Breton history and landscape to anglophones through talks, courses and guided events. She has been filmed for regional TV in France, and has broadcast a historical series for local radio.

Great guide book. Lists where and how to get around Brittany with good information on hotels and restaurants as one goes around Finistere.

This was an excellent compilation of information. Very useful.
