Ballpark Mysteries #6: The Wrigley Riddle

Synopsis

Next up to the plate! — book #6 in our early chapter book mystery series, where each book is set in a different American ballpark! — Ivy-covered walls — they're the most famous part of the Chicago Cubs' historic ballpark, Wrigley Field. Mike and Kate can't wait to get down on the field to see the ivy for themselves. But when they do, they're horrified to discover patches of the ivy have been ripped away! Who would want to sabotage the stadium? Is it someone trying to curse the Cubs? Or is the rumor of a treasure hidden under the ivy tempting greedy fans? The Wrigley Riddle includes a fun fact page about Chicago's Wrigley Field. Cross Ron Roy's A to Z Mystery series with Matt Christopher's sports books and you get the Ballpark Mysteries: fun, puzzling whodunits aimed at the younger brothers and sisters of John Feinstein's fans. — Best Books of the Year 2013 (So Far): Chapter Books

DAVID A. KELLY has written for many newspapers and magazines, and Babe Ruth and the Baseball Curse, published in spring 2009, was his first book for children. He lives 15 minutes from Fenway Park in Newton, Massachusetts, with his wife, Alice; two sons, Steven and Scott; and a dog named Sam.Â Â MARK MEYERS grew up in Utah and studied art in San Francisco at the Academy of Art University.

Good read for a young Cubs fan! This is one of a series of mysteries that take place at various ball parks.

perfect book for our little baseball players

LOVE IT!

My 8 year old son loves The Boxcar Children series. He is also a HUGE Chicago Cubs fan. The moment he got this book he could sit it down. We love it!

Love the Cubs!

If your child is a mystery and baseball fan, they should read the series Baseball Mysteries. There are several books, each one takes place in a different MLB park. These seem to be geared to readers ages 6-8. My grandson loves them.

Great book for my 8 yr. old grandson. He loves the Ball Park Series. We are beginning to collect them and have made it part of our night time reading ritual. I love the way you introduce facts into fun reading. Thank you!

Our seven year old son loves this series and can't get enough! He loves baseball and mysteries so this is perfect. The main characters are a girl and boy who are cousins so it would appeal to boys and girls.
