Lake Wobegon Family Reunion: Selected Stories (Prairie Home Companion (Audio))

Synopsis

Garrison Keillor has been delighting audiences for four decades now with heartfelt, moving, and downright hilarious tales from the shores of Lake Wobegon. Here, for the first time ever, News from Lake Wobegon monologues from the entire history of “the little town on the edge of the prairie” are presented in one collection. From early fan favorites “Bruno the Fishing Dog” and “A Trip to Grand Rapids” to more recent highlights such as “The Hochstetter House” and “The Arrival of Liz,” Lake Wobegon Family Reunion brings together the friends, neighbors, and family members that listeners have embraced as their own.

Customer Reviews

“Packed with whimsical and revealing observations, perfect for any who wants a solid introduction to the variety and comedy of Prairie Home Companion’s radio monologues.” —The Bookwatch “Keillor is a master of the understated, and his comedic timing is impeccable.” —AudioFile [Earphones Award winner]

As the host of A Prairie Home Companion for over forty years, Garrison Keillor has captivated millions of listeners with his News from Lake Wobegon monologues. He has been honored with Grammy, ACE, and George Foster Peabody awards, the National Humanities Medal, and election to the American Academy of Arts and Letters.

It's Garrison Keillor telling Lake Wobegon stories. Nothing more needs to be said. You either are or aren't a Garrison Keillor fan. I "are". Some of the older stories are on here and it's good to hear them again. He's family, as far as I'm concerned, so I love to hear him weave a tale.

My husband and I love Garrison Keillor. His stories are life stories told with very dry humor. We always include G.K. CDs on road trips, they are stories that you can listen to over and over and still laugh. His style has improved over the years. The first CD has "Living Flag" story told in 1981 which is a good story, however, I have heard the same story told 10 and 20 years later and his story telling techniques and emphasis have improved. Don't let this comment shy you away from purchasing this set of CDs. CD #1 includes stories from 1981 to 1986. CD #2 includes stories from 1987-1991. CD#3 includes stories from 1993-2001. CD #4 includes stories from 2002-2010.

Garrison Keillor...hilarious as usual. It's such a pleasure to hear such wonderful stories about such interesting people. If you ever have the pleasure of visiting Minnesota or Wisconsin you'll certainly find one of these 'characters'.

I ordered this and disc 3 had a problem. I got a replacement and disc 3 had the same issue. So stories are 5 stars. Disc 3 is a zero.

I love it - I like everything Garrison Keillor does. He is the @1 Storyteller in the World today.

great narration and stories

Love listening to this

I've been waiting a long while for this CD collection. Back in the day, I had the audiotape version of most of these stories and have missed having access to them. I never tire of listening to a tale well-told. This is definitely a collection you'll want for your "library" so you can return to Lake Wobegon again and again.
