Legendary Locals Of Pine City

Synopsis

Throughout the history of Pine City, individuals have dreamed, struggled, and created a remarkable place of American culture. Legendary Locals of Pine City represents an amazing mix of talents and activities, sometimes with far-reaching effects. The Pine City story is told here in the faces of its people: the innovators who brought industry and commerce; generous people and institutions who have given back to the community in a variety of ways; participants in Pine City's thriving cultural life embracing a spectrum of interests and enthusiasms; and ordinary people living everyday lives who have done extraordinary things or had remarkable experiences. This book honors such individuals as the renowned Karla Nelsen, the world's most muscular woman; Anna Dickey Olesen, the first woman to break the glass ceiling and run for US Senate; and Shane Bauer's mom, Cindy Hickey, who worked diligently for more than two years to free her son from captivity in Iran, along with many other memorable people.

Local historian and author Nathan Johnson also authored Images of America: Pine City and now presents images of local legends from historical archives, family collections, and his own photographs of contemporary Pine Citians.

I figured this would be fun to add to my family history library since my mom was born in PC. Her brother, Robert Thiry got a page which is kind of neat.

This is a must have book for anyone interested in the history of the people of Pine City, MN. Wonderful photos. Great information. It's fun to look through this book and see people I know and get the full story!

Very well written. I enjoyed this fascinating history!

This book is a waste of time. I only looked at 8 pages but the dates and information were wrong. Most of the information I found was copied from the net word for word. It is a waste on money
