Customer Reviews

Like all of Jumpin' Jim Beloff's uke books, this one delivers a good selection of tunes with well-chosen chords. There's a bit of overlap with his other books- I think this is the third of his books I bought that has "Over the Rainbow"- but for a beginner with a taste for these old tunes it's a good choice. With 32 tunes, it comes to less than half a buck per tune- not bad.

This old Boomer loves it !

Easy to play arrangements for the ukulele. The only detraction is it doesn't mention it's geared toward low-G tuning. You only discover that when you open up the book.

I'm a big Jumpin' Jim fan- the songs are always very clearly annotated for a beginner like myself! I barely knew any of the songs in this book though- maybe they had a hard time getting the rights?
