Hockey Morning Noon And Night

Synopsis

Pepper is a seven-year-old boy who tries to incorporate hockey into everything he does: eating, drawing, music, visits with friends, storiesâ€¦ even sleeping! The playful watercolor and ink images are presented as lighthearted vignettes that enhance the verse with humor and coziness. An approachable book for kids and a heartwarming tale for any adult involved in hockey culture.

The ideal book for young hockey fanatics!

Doretta Groenendyk, a painter, writer and teacher, lives with her family on a small spot of land in the Annapolis Valley of Nova Scotia. Doretta is the illustrator of the children's book Bounce & Beans & Burn and the author and illustrator of several books, including Hockey Morning Noon and Night, I'm drawing a picture, I'm Writing a Story, Bully 101 and Step Outside. Her books Snow for Christmas and Thank You for My Bed both have been shortlisted for the Lillian Shepherd Memorial Award for Excellence in Illustration. She also co-wrote Spin to Sea with daughter Izra Fitch. For more information, visit www.doretta-art.com.

The pictures are dark and it's difficult to read the print because it's dark as well.

I haven't given it to him as a gift yet so I will not be sure until then

Our little loves his hockey book.

Love this book for my big hockey fan. Excellent illustrations and story.

What a great book Doretta! Very cute and very relatable! We have three boys and it was nice to see that our crazy hockey life in Minnesota also brings such warm memories through the years for families. Loved all the cut out collage style photos; just a unique touch. My 7yr old brought it to 'share a book' day at school!

I bought it as a gift for an 8 year old, and he loves it! He is an eat, sleep, breathe hockey kind of kid!

Really cute book with fab illustrations !

My son loves hockey and loves story time... Perfect fit.
