Customer Reviews

I pretty much rate all these Golden Books as 5-stars. Quality construction, a very good price, and the pictures have a cutesy look to them that mimics the movie they're based on, but with a style of their own.

Super cute Golden Book. Bought this for my sons Peter Pan party and it was super cute as part of the decoration. I love the vintage and classic look golden books has.

Disappointed that it arrived damaged. Price was right however. Looks like someone tried to rest Apple the spine of something, this ruined the little gold part of the little gold book.

This book arrived very quickly, in brand new condition, sold by . I only paid $2.21 for it (no postage) and it looks as though it's never been touched. I'm so very happy with this purchase! My granddaughter, whose 5th birthday is in a few days, will love receiving the book. We've often taken it out from the library, as well as the DVD of the Disney cartoon, and she can't get enough of Peter Pan. Her favorite character is Peter Pan; she also likes the crocodile with his tick-tick-ticking. The story is printed in a smaller font than most Little Golden Books because the story is somewhat longer than most of their books. But I'm extremely happy with this purchase!

2017 Update: We're up to four grandchildren now, and our collection of Little Golden Books has really paid off in terms of quality time spent reading to them (and eventually, their turning the tables and reading them to us!) Any time Peter Pan is the book they choose, it makes me feel like an 8 year old again, watching it on the big screen! Based on the 1953 Disney movie (14th in Disney's animated classic series), I do want to caution that this Little Golden Book is probably THE most wordy in the collection of Disney film-based books we began for our grandkids, wanting to give them a taste of the classic films my husband and I - and their parents - grew up with right along with Disney's more recent film stories. Hard to condense a story like this into 24 pages - it doesn't miss much while doing so, resulting in a book that's probably a bit too long for a bedtime story or for the very young crowd, a bit too complicated for beginning readers. But for older youngsters, all of the characters I remember from my childhood - Wendy, John, Michael, Mr. & Mrs. Darling, Tinker Bell and her pixie dust - and all of the Neverland occupants - Captain Hook, Mr. Smee, the Lost Boys, Tiger Lily - are here, and of course, that persistent croc is still ticking away! (I'll put the text of the book in the comments section below, for anyone who's interested to be able to judge for themselves if their youngster's ready for it.) Can clearly recall my mother taking two of my younger sisters and I to see a re-release of this film when I was just a kid, and while I think some of the scenes were a bit overwhelming for my sisters, I loved every moment and came home imagining I was Wendy! I think the beauty of the Peter Pan story, at its core, is a celebration of a child's imagination. The illustrations are vivid and really capture the film.

Peter Pan. My two-year old grandson loves this book and the movie. He loves to pretend he is flying with his toy airplanes while he listens to me reading the Peter Pan book and when he looks at the movie. I had excellent, excellent services from the sellers I purchased the book and the DVD, and the VHS tape of "Peter Pan". I love .com. I have made many, many purchases from them and I have not been disappointed. AAC

Great little book with wonderful illustrations! Used it as a gift and to decorate banners for a Peter Pan themed baby shower.

Love this!
