Another excellent book in the continuing saga of Jack Carter with his most complex assignment to date. At once, he is after three runners who have vowed to make the women in his life their victims. The lives of all the main characters are changed in this book forever as deals with each step toward the climax of the book.

Wow. Not the ending I expected but I sure need to get #6 ready to read. Very exciting and can't wait to find out what happens

I can't stop reading these, it's always exciting yet touching!! I love not having to scroll thru slot of smut. Thank You!!,

Another excellent work. I am always eager for his next book. I recommended one of John's books to my sister and after reading it she went back out and bought every book she could find written by John Dalglish.

The storyline is quick and encouraging, I would recommend these books to all ages especially liked the part when he was selected to become a chased because of his blind faith.Patsy

I really loved this book and the whole Chaser series. It is Christian based in a good way and an interesting fantasy read. The good guys are very likeable and the bad guys are unique.

An interesting idea "The Chaser Chronicles " presented. I hope more in this series is in the works.

Enjoyed book and the series.
