Anna Dewdney was a teacher, mother, and enthusiastic proponent of reading aloud to children. She continually honed her skills as an artist and writer and published her first Llama Llama book in 2005. Her passion for creating extended to home and garden and she lovingly restored an 18th century farmhouse in southern Vermont. She wrote, painted, gardened, and lived there with her partner, Reed, her two daughters, two wirehaired pointing griffons, and one bulldog. Anna passed away in 2016, but her spirit will live on in her books.

"Llama Llama Gives Thanks" is a great addition to the Llama Llama board books collection. It is an easy story to read aloud which is one of the things I love about the Llama Llama board books. It is also a short enough story that my twin 20 month olds don't get bored and sit through the whole story. In fact, they like it so much we can read it multiple times in one sitting. I would highly recommend this book to anyone who is a fan of the other Llama Llama board books.

My son has all of the llama llama books and board books and we both just love them all.

my grandson loves the book!

Darling book for my 1 year old daughter, she loves all the books in the llama llama series. Bright pictures and adorable Thanksgiving rhyme.

The babies in my infant class loves these llama llama books.

Llama Llama is always a great book
