Customer Reviews

This book is great. I've purchased about a half dozen of these type of books and this is the best one by far. For one, it's the most professionally written. But more importantly, it's the largest. Most of these books are around the same price, $10-$18, but are very very thin. This is well over 100 pages, with over 100 questions, when other books only have maybe 12 questions. FYI, if you are interested in more information, there are quite a few other books, DVDs, and youtube videos addressing this topic out there. But in regards to books, this is the best I've seen, bang for your buck.

The author did a good job of gathering and explaining each question. Enjoyed the and learned more from this book than the other books read thus far.

This book is great for practicing your oral boards. It actually gives you questions with answers to consider or think about. The Police oral boards secrets book wasn't helpful for me at all. Hardly any questions to practice. I should have bought this book first.

I used this book and just completed my oral board on 24 Feb 2017. I passed with flying colors. I read the book once completely through then skimmed over it in the weeks leading up to my interview. The questions and scenarios asked were not verbatim but they were covered in the book. Excellent read

The book was a huge help it definitely helped me get through my first two oral interviews

Garbage!!!! Don't waste your time on this book. There are also a ton of grammar and typo errors.

This book has a lot of scenario questions that gets you to think critically. Even if the questions that you get asked during the oral board process don't match with what is inside this text, it's still a great reference tool. Highly recommend it for anyone going into law enforcement.

Although I found a few grammar and spelling mistakes here and there the points are very important and valuable, that's why you should give this book a go.
