This book features sheet music from the soundtrack of the Walt Disney Movie 'The Hunchback of Notre Dame.'

The arrangements in this book are excellent, and the composers did not skimp on the versions that are very true to the movie. My favorite piece to play in the entire book is "God Help the Outcasts."The Bells of Notre Dame arrangement is 16 pages, but sounds awesome.Has a great version of "Someday."Intermediate songs.

I find it very frustrating when Disney does an anthology and 'white washes' the songs that make the movie so iconic. This book keeps all the original lyrics and has beautiful stills from the talented animators included.

Great sheet music--full versions of songs in original keys. Horrible binding. Pages fall out.

It's great, has all of the major songs. It's best for an intermediate player, not the hardest thing I've ever played but not beginner level either. Definitely recommended for anyone who likes the music from the film.

It's not perfectly like the original, but better than some other disney songbooks out there. They haven't skimped on the notes to make it look easier to play, which I appreciate. This also has the full versions of the songs, so when there's a segue or when multiple songs string together in the movie, this book does that too. I like that because it sounds more like the original, but it means if I just want to play, for example, Heaven's Light without the Hellfire bit, I have to make up an ending somewhere in there! But, that's better than the alternative of them leaving out songs or making them sound "wrong."

My daughter loves Disney movies and loves to play the songs on her piano. This is her favorite book! I would say it is for intermediate piano players, not beginners. It also contains the guitar chords. The pages are of a very high quality, and the book contains beautiful colorful pictures from movie scenes.

Great book. Though the movies' music is a bit dark, it is very lovely to play.

Love love love this!
