Customer Reviews

I tried both this and Berlitz Rush Hour (the music course). I am having great success with this Pimsleur and plan to purchase the full Spanish 1 course next. The courses are clearly organized and re-inforce learning. The speaker is clear and emphasizes pronunciation giving you ample opportunity to practice. There are two speakers, male and female, so you hear two different intonations of everything. If I must be critical (and I feel I must :) it would be that you should understand that you are learning the 'Spain' dialect of Spanish so your language will be the 'formal' Spanish rather than the 'street' Spanish. However, I would prefer to learn with CORRECT accents and pronunciations first, and I can incorporate 'slang' and local dialects later. Contrast this to the Thomas course, where reviewers state that the accent is Swiss (?I believe, NOT Spanish anyway). Overall, this course meets my objective of allowing me to learn Spanish during my daily commute with zero book time. Very effective. Update: Since I wrote this I bought the full Pimsleur and am about to begin Spanish III. I'm very happy with it. Read my List and Guide for more info.

I like the Pimsleur system, it works well, is easy to use. This particular "Quick & Simple" version consists of only 4 tapes, just enough to let you decide you want to learn more Spanish, so you can buy the more complete Spanish I. If you are going on a trip and want to learn travel Spanish, get the Conversation version by Pimsleur, which has 16 lessons and will do much better. Some of the reviews for this Quick & Simple version were originally reviews for a longer version that is now discontinued, and they were transferred to this less than filling version. The version that was discontinued was replaced later by the Conversational version. The Pimsleur system works well, this version is just a light sampling of the language to see if you want to go further.

Ok but there's better out there. Full disclosure I Sent back Product in great shape!

Arrived as expected, thx

good product to learn Spanish with Audio working as I expected. satisfied.

I wish there was a learning program for Spanglish. I don't want to learn Spanish grammar, I struggle with English grammar. I want a program to teach me a few words & sentences so I can communicate with my workers.
