The Cats That Stalked A Ghost (The Cats That . . . Cozy Mystery Book 6)

Synopsis

If you love mysteries with cats, get ready for a thrilling, action-packed read that will keep you guessing until the very end. While Katherine and Jake are tying the knot at her pink mansion, a teen ghost has other plans, which shake their Erie, Indiana town to its core. How does a beautiful September wedding end in mistaken identity . . . and murder? What does an abandoned insane asylum have to do with a spirit that is haunting Katz? Colleen, a paranormal investigator at night and student by day, shows Katz how to communicate with ghosts. An arsonist is torching historic properties. Will the mansion be his next target? Ex-con Stevie Sanders and the Siamese play their own stalking games, but for different reasons. It's up to Katz and her extraordinary felines to solve two mysteries: one hot, one cold. Seal-point Scout wants a new adventure fix, and litter-mate Abra fetches a major clue that puts an arsonist behind bars. Enjoy this stand-alone novel, then learn more about these characters in their debut book, The Cats that Surfed the Web.[®] TM bestselling author of The Cats that . . . Cozy Mystery series.

Customer Reviews

Karen Anne Golden again tells us the story of Katherine and Jack as their wedding day is fast approaching. Cora Corkenberger has all the arrangements made for the reception where you would think she had invited everyone she knew and then some. Once again enter Katherine's cat's. How do they accomplish all they do? Well this book really has them doing way more than every before. This book has it all; someone is setting fires and Katherine while showing her four section house observes a ghost. I love the writing of Ms. Golden she keeps you engaged and if you are a person who can only read a few pages, you better clear your days because this page turner will grab you.

I have read the previous 5 books in this series. This is by far the best. A must read. Karen Anne Golden is a superb author. I love everything she has written. This book scared the wits out of me, especially chapter 6. Karen weaves her stories incorporating not only interesting characters but also those loveable cats who are involved in everything. If you like mysteries and cats you will love this book. Do yourself a big favor and read the previous 5 of her Cozy Cat Series. I love this Author! She is a gift to all of us.

I gave this tale four stars because I enjoy animals. I feel I would have enjoyed this book if there were more Ghosts active besides in the prologue and ending. The mystery was all in the last quarter of the book and I will say, we do find out the ghost's name. I think I would have enjoyed this tale being a romance with Cats included. Leave out the mystery, it rather spoiled the tale for me. And, I was annoyed by the double spacing. It made the chapters go on and on.

While in the carriage house Katz sees a long rocking chair moving by itself. Scout is quite upset about the room and wants out again. Katz sees a sighting of a spirit at various times when she is in danger. She is getting ready for her marriage to Jake. Scout and Abra are featured in this book. The other 5 play a small part. I enjoy the interaction of the cats and this has become a favorite series. If you like cats you will this book.

The characters are so real, you feel like you know them personally. The descriptive nature of the author's writings makes you feel like the town actually exists and you live there! I love this book series and am glad that the cats are within the pages, as I am highly allergic to cats.

Loved it In this book the wonder cats have a first row role, specially Scout. And crows. And raccoons!!! There are fires, gun fights, kidnappings, a marriage and a helpful ghost. What else can you ask for?! Go for it! Buy this book, sit with your favorite pet and enjoy!!!

A woman who has inherited millions from an aunt she didn't know, a Victorian mansion, a wedding, a friendly ghost, arson and the cozy feel of the Erie, Indiana setting all combine to make this a great read for those who enjoy cozy mysteries with pets. Suggestion: before reading this book, read the previous books in the series. This was my first reading about Katherine and her special cats. I will say it reminded me of Lillian Jackson Braun books. I loved the cats' abilities to help in solving the mystery and in saving their human companion. These are a smart group of kitties. I loved Katherine who kept her wits about her. Her friends were very supportive. I found the number of characters, their names and their personalities a bit overwhelming. It was only after I read this book that I learned that it was one of a series and perhaps it wouldn't have been as confusing had I read the previous books.

YouÃ¢â€šÃ¢ve heard of MurphyÃ¢â€šÃ¢s Law IÃ¢â€šÃ¢m sure. Well it certainly applies to this installment of Karen Anne GoldenÃ¢â€šÃ¢s series. You see Katz and Jake are planning their wedding. ItÃ¢â€šÃ¢s going to be a lovely affair. When Katz hears crying sounds coming from one of the rooms in the house she is thinking about selling, she goes to investigate. Finding nothing but an old rocking chair, mysteriously rocking, she thinks nothing of it. Then a real estate agent comes by and wants to look at the house. Things get even weirder from there. Ghosts appear, crows and raccoons seem to know the danger that Katz and her kitties are in and lend a paw or wing as it were. I wonÃ¢â€šÃ¢t tell you any more. IÃ¢â€šÃ¢ll just say it was great. I couldnÃ¢â€šÃ¢t put it down. Now IÃ¢â€šÃ¢m waiting for the next one in the series. If you havenÃ¢â€šÃ¢t read the series, you really should. Not all of the books have ghosts, but they all do have some of the smartest cats IÃ¢â€šÃ¢ve met.
