INTERMEDIATE ACCOUNTING WITH AIR FRANCE-KLM 2013 ANNUAL REPORT

Synopsis

NOTE: This is a standalone book and doesn't include an access code. Financial accounting is undergoing a period of unprecedented change. The FASB and IASB have been working together to issue converged accounting standards that will dramatically change key reporting areas, and more generally have sought to converge accounting standards over time. However, at present the convergence process appears to have stalled with respect to new standards, and it is not clear when, if ever, IFRS will be fully incorporated into U.S. GAAP. So, while there is considerable overlap between U.S. GAAP and IFRS, important differences between U.S. GAAP and IFRS will remain for the foreseeable future. To help instructors deal with this very challenging environment, the Spiceland team is committed to providing current, comprehensive, and clear coverage of intermediate accounting, and the eighth edition reflects this.

I wish it was available in loose leaf as it's a large heavy textbook. But it was much less than the schools cost so I am happy to carry this big book. I am very excited that it was exactly what I needed for class and it was perfect...no marks, the binding was in tact and the correct edition.

This book does not come with the access code even when purchased new!

It's a really well written text book. I had to purchase connect for the college class i'm taking. I went ahead and bought the text book used and then paid for the connect separately. It didn't come with the air France sub set because i bought it used, but this was not required for my accounting class. There's a loose leaf version they sell on connect that some people prefer because they don't have to take the whole book to class each time. The connect version also comes with the ebook.

Fast shipping, perfectt quality, and easy to track my package.

Did not come with air france klm 2013 annual report supplement

Good

Very informative

I bought this as a "used" book and I ended up getting a brand new one...score!
