Customer Reviews

Bright clear and well organized. The problem with GPS is how current it is. If you can find where you're going on a map with the address, there are other landmarks you can see and use as well. Very valuable for orientation for moving!

As new transplants to the Triangle area, we bought this map book to keep at home and the pocket edition to keep in the car. The level of detail is impressive, and our new street was even included (which I can't say for any of the online map services). This has proven to be a valuable resource for my family as we get acclimated to the area. Highly recommended.

ADC doesn't offer individual county maps in North Carolina as they do in Maryland - where I use them - but this mapbook is excellent in the specific areas for which it is intended.
