Customer Reviews

Praise for Owl Diaries #1: "Bright and colorful digital illustrations, large type, frequent speech bubbles and a familiar story make this accessible to emerging readers. —[This series promises to fill a niche for \[new readers.\] Keep flapping, Eva!](#)" -- Kirkus "Appealing visuals (the text and art are set against the lined pages of Eva's diary), punny dialogue, a few pratfalls, and Eva's unflagging enthusiasm make for lively reading." -- Publishers Weekly

"This early chapter book is a nice step between first readers and series such as Barbara Parks's 'Junie B. Jones' and Mary Pope Osborne's 'Magic Tree House.'" -- School Library Journal

A famous author is coming to visit Eva's class. Everyone has to write a short story. But then Eva's pet bat, Baxter, goes missing! Eva is too worried to write! She and her friends look everywhere. They even hang up posters! Where could Baxter be? --This text refers to the Library Binding edition.

My 1st grader started the Owl Diaries series at the beginning of the year, and was thrilled to receive the newest installment today! As a mom it makes me so happy to see her excited about reading! These books are super adorable and fun!! At this point in the school year they aren't challenging for her, but she likes that she can sit and read one in under 20 minutes! These books are a great first "chapter" book series to help build confidence in young readers and to really build a love for reading!!!

I can't say enough about this exciting "chapter book" series for beginning readers. If the child has older siblings, he/she already knows about the "diary" books for older kids. Our 6 year old laughs out loud at the clever "bird related" ideas. The books offer just enough challenge with new vocabulary words to allow the reader to progress with their ability. We have all 6 books and preordered # 7.

Got this for my 8 year old who started reading Owl Diaries in kindergarten. It's a very easy read for her but she loves the series. It was this series that helped her transition to chapter books. It made chapter books less intimidating and more interesting to her as it's colorful and still has pictures.

This was a gift for my niece, who now has the first 6 Eva the Owl books!! Her mom reads them to her at night & they both look forward to bedtime.

My 8 year old loves this series. She can't wait for the next one.

My daughter loves the owl diaries, she sat and read this the moment I handed it to her!

My granddaughter loves this series of books!

My daughter has the entire collection
