A prolific writer of magazine articles and columns for CBA publications, she's also the author of the Little Golden Books Bible Stories of Boys and Girls and David and Goliath. She lives in Houston, Texas. Ande Cook is an artist who has illustrated a number of children's books, including the Little Golden Book Bible Heroes. She is the director of teacher training at the High Museum of Art, as well as an artist in residence for the Georgia Council for the Arts. Cook lives in Georgia with her husband.

Oh the cute little Golden Books that we all know and love with one page bible stories. For the young children that I teach at a private christian school these stories are complete enough for me to feel like I've taught them an important lesson but short enough to hold their attention. The bible heroes in this book are: Adam, Noah, Joseph, Miriam, Moses, Joshua, Samson, Deborah, David, Solomon, Elijah, Esther, Daniel and Jonah

Some discrepancies with the actual Bible stories, but a good introduction to various Old Testament characters for little ones. Typical of Little Golden Books.

Several Bible heroes are introduced without too much graphic detail. The stories capture the essence of the heroes which was their faith and reliance on God to be with them through difficult times.

Stories are super short! There could be so much more you could say about each character, regardless of the age of the child, they could definitely expand each story. I would not recommend this one.

I bought these for my grandson so that he has a book of his own when he accompanies my wife and I or his parents to church. They are time tested children's books

Love this book. Gift for my grandkids.
