Popper, David - Hungarian Rhapsody Op. 68. For Cello And Piano. Published By International Music

Synopsis

Primarily known for his educational etudes, David Popper was also a prolific composer of solo works for cello. Not many of these works have survived, but Hungarian Rhapsody remains very popular. Originally for cello and orchestra, the piece is both challenging and unique, strikingly exhibiting the Hungarian style for which it is named. Edited by Leonard Rose, for cello and piano. Published by International Music Company. Difficulty: ASTA Grade 5

One of my favorite pieces I have ever played. Requires many different styles and technique but it is so fun and a great listen for my parents who aren't into classical music. Since it is by popper it fits very well under the hand. The editing was fine.
