Customer Reviews

Save yourself the 1st year lesson of briefing, after your figure out how

Excellent resource for 1L's to use in conjunction with the assigned reading. The charts in the front of the book are the most valuable investment you can give yourself.

I would recommend this for any law student looking to cut down on time. Reading over the case brief before you delve into your reading can give you a better idea of what to focus on. Buy this at the beginning of the semester and read your cases 1-2 times instead of 2-3.

I find this to be a perfect reference book instead of turning to other case briefs

Most of the cases do not coincide with the book

Yes. Thanks for the Book.

It is really for helpful for first year law school student, i think. Its focus is great and I like it.
