Synopsis

“a great addition to the world of romantic suspense!” ~Suspense Sisters Reviews

ERIN JACOBS doesn’t hesitate when she receives a desperate call in the middle of the night. As owner of the Noah’s Ark Animal Shelter, it’s her job to rescue animals. But from the start, this case is different. The woman’s frantic plea. Directions to a deserted hunter’s cabin. Insistence that she come alone. Then she’s looking down into a washtub at an infant child. Erin’s life changes irrevocably when she becomes involved with a mother who has lost all hope, an orphaned child, millions of dollars and a father who might do anything to get his hands on the money. Social worker TRAVIS WILLIAMS is assigned to her case. Travis sees more in Erin than someone who rescues strays. She’s unconventional, strong-willed, and caring. It could be that she would make the perfect parent for Josh. Before he can work through his feelings and file his report, the situation takes another dangerous turn. Can Erin and Travis guarantee Josh’s safety? To do so, they’ll need to rely on one another, their families, and the faith of their childhood. Vannetta Chapman writes inspirational fiction full of grace. Her novel, Falling to Pieces, won the 2012 ACFW Carol Award for best mystery. She writes Amish mysteries for Zondervan, Amish romances for Harvest House and Amish novellas for Thomas Nelson. All of her books have been Christian Book Distributor bestsellers. Protected is her second inspirational romantic suspense. Chapman lives in the Texas hill country with her husband, pets and a herd of deer.

Erin Jacobs enjoys her job as animal rescuer. She also enjoys running NoahÃ¢Â¢Â¢s Ark Animal Shelter. ItÃ¢Â¢Â¢s a good fit because she has always felt more at ease with animals than with people. All in all, sheÃ¢Â¢Â¢s pretty content, until that night when she gets a mysterious phone call that totally turns her world upside down. Travis Williams enjoys his job as a social worker, and he takes his job very seriously. Everything is by the book. No gray areas to be found if Travis is on the case. All in all, heÃ¢Â¢Â¢s pretty content, until the day when he gets a special assignment which totally turns his world upside down. Vannetta Chapman has once again captured the true essence of a romantic suspense. In Protected, there are equal parts romance and suspense. Neither one overshadows the other giving the story a perfect balance. On the surface Erin and Travis are worlds apart, but as the story unfolds, they are drawn to each other romantically and by a common cause. The author also blends in a lovely spiritual message of faith and new beginnings. Again, this component flows perfectly throughout the story without overshadowing. Vannetta also does an awesome job of doing her homework on the topics she writes about, which in this case is the subject of child and family welfare. Although the story is fiction, the information and facts in the story help the reader gain some background knowledge and gives more credence to the story. The results are a lovely story of faith, new beginnings, romance, suspense, and humor which will capture the readerÃ¢Â¢Â¢s attention from beginning to end. Once you pick it up, you wonÃ¢Â¢Â¢t want to put it down until youÃ¢Â¢Â¢ve read every word. ItÃ¢Â¢Â¢s just that good!I received a copy of this book in exchange for an honest and objective review. All opinions and viewpoints are my own.

Excellent second book in this series as it follows Dana's sister, the animal rescuer. Erin rescues baby Josh and it's love at first sight. This storyline brought me to tears so get your tissues out. The way the story ended, there are some unanswered questions, I hope there is a third book.

Vanetta Chapman is one of my very favorite authors. This is one of those books that so good it is hard to put down once you start reading,

The story of Erin and Travis with Joshua as a third part of love is an entertaining read. There isn't outrageous love scenes but warm friendship and caring. The ARK lends an extra element and paves the way for relationship.

This book reminded me over and over again to give all our worries and burdens to the Lord. To trust Him no matter what hardship we are facing. Thank you Vanetta as the Lord leads my family and myself through our current storm.

I really enjoyed this story about Erin Jacobs. Finding an abandoned infant and becoming a foster parent changes her life and brings her past to the present. We see God's saving grace that changes her life. I look forward to more by this author.

I finished Protected by Vanetta Chapman. I absolutely loved it and was sad it ended so soon. Travis was a social worker for DYFS (or the equivalent) and was assigned to determine whether Erin (an animal rescuer) would have the ability to take care of a 2 month old that she found when called out for a rescue. Erin fell in love at first sight. She knew that Josh was meant for her. But she is not sure. Travis agrees with her. Travis had no doubt she loves Josh and would be a great Mom...but will she consider loving him? Beautifully written and cannot wait to read more!!!

Wonderful book. Well written. It is so nice to read a good, clean written book. I love reading Christian suspense books.
